Communications & Legislative Affairs Director Named

Frankfort, Ky. (Feb. 26, 2016) – Doug Hogan has been appointed an executive director in the Public Protection Cabinet. He will lead the public affairs office and serve as the cabinet's legislative liaison.

"Doug Hogan brings tremendous experience to this position," commented Public Protection Cabinet Secretary David A. Dickerson. "He's a respected communications expert who knows the legislative process inside and out."

Hogan has five years of previous state government experience having worked in both the executive and legislative branches. His 18 years in television news includes jobs as news director, executive producer, anchor and reporter at TV stations in Kentucky, Ohio and Alabama. Hogan spent the past four years as communications director at a nonprofit health foundation based in Louisville.

"I want to thank Governor Matt Bevin and Secretary Dickerson for this appointment. I look forward to the public affairs and policy roles as part of the Governor's team at the Public Protection Cabinet."

Hogan is a graduate of Western Kentucky University with a Bachelor of Arts in Broadcast News & Public Affairs. He's a native of Burkesville, Ky. He and his family live in Frankfort.

The appointment is effective immediately.
